TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page

PREFACE 7

LETTER FROM PRESIDENT EISENHOWER 8

PROGRAM OF THE FORTIETH NATIONAL CONFERENCE 13-18

PART ONE—INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

A. INTRODUCTION

1. Foreign Marketing in Today's World 20
   William R. Herod
2. Opportunities in the U. S. for Foreign Consumer Goods 29
   Alan C. Russell
3. Foreign Competition in American Industrial Markets 37
   Stuart L. Mandell
4. Opportunities Abroad for U.S. Consumer Goods 42
   George Q. Adamson
5. What to Study Before Entering the Foreign Market 48
   Victor P. Buell

B. STUDIES IN THE MARKETING OF SPECIFIC PRODUCTS IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE

6. Difficulties and Differences in Marketing Abroad 60
   James P. Delafield
7. Conquering the Foreign Market 60
   F. Mark Rivinus, Jr.
8. Meeting the American Market Challenge 72
   Philip Cortney
9. Chemicals—the Changing Pattern of Foreign Marketing 80
   C. J. Bitzer
10. Entering the Foreign Chemical Market 83
    E. W. Eipper
11. Exporting Do-It-Yourself Know-How 87
    E. E. Winne
12. Successful Marketing Abroad 91
    M. K. Horne, Jr.

C. MARKETING RESEARCH IN INTERNATIONAL TRADE

13. The Developing Role of International Marketing Research 98
    Hawthorne Deming
14. Marketing Research in Underdeveloped Areas 104
    William Copulsky
15. Mistakes Not to Make in Marketing Abroad 113
    Arthur C. Nielsen, Jr.

XUM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page

D. CANADA-UNITED STATES RELATIONS

16. The Interdependence of Canada and the United States....122
Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe

17. Energy as an International Commodity....127
W. O. Twaits

18. Retail Trade—Canada and the United States....133
T. G. McCormack

E. STATUS OF MARKETING EDUCATION ABROAD

19. Status of Marketing Education in Europe....142
Robert G. Seymour

20. Status of Marketing Education in the Middle East and Egypt....146
A. Aziz el Sherbini

21. Status of Marketing Education in South America....149
Harper W. Boyd, Jr.

F. REPORT OF THE TASK FORCE ON INTERNATIONAL MARKETING

22. Preliminary Recommendations for the AMA Program in International Marketing....154
John Fayerweather

23. Report of Task Force on Market Analysis for U.S. International Operations....156
Harvey C. Smith

24. Report of Subcommittee on Comparative Marketing....159
Robert Bartels

25. Report of the Committee on Importing to the United States....161
Endel J. Kolde

26. AMA Program for Foreign Inquiries and Visitors....165
Donald E. West

27. AMA Policies in Relations Abroad....166
Laurence P. Dowd

28. Attitudes of Teacher Members toward Role of Foreign Marketing in the AMA....168
Peter S. King

PART TWO—MARKETING MANAGEMENT

29. What Management Expects Marketing to Know and Do....172
F. T. Keeler

30. What Marketing Research and Planning Can Do for Marketing Management....180
W. W. Morris

XUM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page

31. The Elusive Element in Scientific Marketing 189
Walter Weir

32. Management's Nightmare 195
Ray R. Eppert

33. Marketing Research Administration 202
Anthony E. Cascino

34. The Channel of Marketing as a Unit of Competition 208
Reavis Cox

35. Organizing for Effective Marketing 213
John M. Shaw

36. Business Outlook at Home and Abroad 220
Charles E. Silberman

37. Seminar Method of Training for Forecasting 225

38. Visual Aids and Their Value to Marketing and Marketing Courses 234
William J. Shultz

PART THREE—MARKETING RESEARCH

A. NEW PRODUCT DEVELOPMENT

39. The Use of Market Research in Developing New Products 240
W. R. Reiss

40. Marketing Factors in Research and Development 249
Harrison M. Rainie, Jr.

41. The Use of Functional Features in Product Strategy 259
John B. Stewart

42. Appliances from the Viewpoint of the Manufacturer 264
David J. McCarty

B. CONSUMER RESEARCH

43. The LIFE Study of Consumer Expenditures: Its Implications about Future Consumer Markets 273
Richard H. Ostheimer

44. Reason Analysis vs. Motivation Research 278
Fred T. Schreier

45. How the Sociologist Can Help the Marketing Practitioner 287
Joseph E. Bachelder

46. How the Psychologist Can Help the Marketing Practitioner 294
Jack William Dunlap

47. How the Anthropologist Can Help the Marketing Practitioner 299
Richard C. Sheldon

48. Long-Range Planning for Consumer Goods 305
Robert A. Whitney

XUM

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Page

49. Changing Size of the American Family 309
Conrad Taeuber

40. Population Changes and Their Importance 319
Joseph S. Davis

51. Bottlenecks to Housing 323
Arthur Sworn Goldman

C. ADVERTISING AND PROMOTION

52. The Gulf between Media Research and Media Planning 334
Paul E. J. Gerhold

53. Media Research—A Qualitative Perspective 338
Donald L. Kanter

54. Research—The Basis for Nonbrand Marketing 342
Shelby A. Robert, Jr.

55. Merchandising of Food Products 348
Irving W. Rabb

D. OUTSIDE RESEARCH ASSISTANCE

56. Public Research for Successful Marketing 356
Harry C. Trelogan

57. Functions of Trade Associations in Supplying Industry Data 365
A. J. Nesti

58. Successful Marketing—Magic Formulae at Home and Abroad 367
Vincent Tutching

59. The Marketing Teacher as a Business Consultant 374
Donald F. Blankertz

E. SELECTED APPLICATIONS OF MARKETING RESEARCH

60. Role of Marketing Research in Utility Sales Control 386
Malcolm R. Rodger

61. Gauging—and Getting—the Future Building Market 393
George Cline Smith

PART FOUR—WHOLESALING SESQUICENTENNIAL

62. The Historical Development of the Wholesaler during the Past 150 Years 402
Millan R. Karas

63. The Modern Wholesaler and His Adjustment to a Changing Economy 402
Herman C. Nolen

64. Some Additional Observations on the Modern Wholesaler 416
Rudolf L. Treuenfels

ALPHABETICAL INDEX OF AUTHORS 423

XUM